Kodak easysshare max z990 sample photos

If you've been looking to buy your child a digital camera for Christmas or as a birthday present, or simply to get them started in the world of photography, then you'd be forgiven for thinking a kids digital camera would be a good idea. Here we'll have a look at whats on offer, and offer some helpful advise along the way. Continue reading... [Continue Reading...] Kodak has announced a number of new cameras, including some that just appeared on the internet without any (official) announcement. Kodak Easysshare M23 – Budget, 5x optical zoom, 14mp, red, black, £67, ePHOTOzine Kodak Easysshare M5370 – Touchscreen, 5x optical zoom, 16mp, £148, ePHOTOzine Kodak Easysshare M5350 – 5x optical zoom, 14mp, £121, 1001noisycameras Kodak Easysshare Z5010 – 21x optical zoom, 14mp, £229, 1001noisycameras A new camera from Kodak has been announced, the Kodak Easysshare C1505, it features a 12 megapixel sensor, 2.4inch screen, fixed focus lens equivalent to 35/38mm (depending on whether you look at the specs or the picture of the camera), flash, takes two AA batteries, SD/SDHC memory, and records VGA videos. The camera is available for £49 from Kodak (via ephotozine). ePHOTOzine has reviewed the new Kodak Easysshare Mini M200, it features a 10mp sensor, wide angle 3x optical zoom lens, 2.5" screen, VGA video, face detection, self-portrait mirror, lithium ion battery, it is available in "Red" (shown above), white and black (and possibly other colours depending on region) for around £69. "The Kodak Easysshare Mini, or M200, to give it it's full name, is one of Kodak's smallest ever digital cameras, and it makes a refreshing change to see a camera with one aim in life: to be small. In that sense it features a small 3x optical zoom lens, a small 10 megapixel sensor, and a "small" 2.5 inch screen. Oh, and it fits in your pocket, handbag, or anywhere else small... but how does it perform? Find out here." Amazon UK are selling the Kodak Easysshare M530 for only £49 – and a leather case for just £4 – the camera features a 3x optical zoom lens, 2.7" screen, 12 megapixel sensor, panoramic stitching, face detection, VGA video recording at 30fps, and is be available in red, carbon, blue and green. "Sharing pictures has never been easier than with the M530 Digital Camera. Kodak's Share button lets you instantly tag pictures for uploading to YouTube, FACEBOOK, FLICKR and KODAK Gallery sites, plus e-mail too." Kodak has announced the new Kodak Easysshare MAX (Z990), it features a 12mp BSI (back side illumination) CMOS sensor, wide angle 30x optical zoom lens (f/2.8, 28–840 mm), optical image stabilisation, 3.0" HVGA screen, 1080p HD video recording at 30fps, stereo mic, HDR mode, manual modes, face detection, histogram display, 360 panoramic mode, ISO64-6400 (12800 at 3.1mp), EVF, high speed burst mode 120 fps @ 1 MP (max 4D), and takes Ni-MH AA batteries (provided). Update: ePHOTOzine has published the first preview of the Kodak Easysshare Max Z990, and the camera is available to order from Amazon UK for £299. "If you love taking pictures, then the KODAK EASYSHARE MAX Camera is exactly what you're looking for. When inspiration strikes, whether in direct sunlight or sitting by a campfire, this high-performance camera—jammed full of features—makes it a breeze to capture what you see. The result? Crisp, beautiful pictures that boost your reputation as the best photographer in the family, if not the neighborhood. And thanks to Kodak's Share button and the world's only digital cameras with 3-step sharing[1], sharing those shots is simple. Just press Share to e-mail to friends and to KODAK PULSE Display or upload to KODAK Gallery[2], FACEBOOK, TWITTER, YouTube, FLICKR, ORKUT, YANDEX, and KAIXIN001 sites[3].
